GURU POORNIMA ON 7th July 2009 (Tuesday)

“A day to open our hearts, our souls and our lives to Amma’s presence, letting it penetrate and saturate every aspect of our being...”

The full moon day in the month of Ashada (July – August) is observed as the auspicious day of Guru Poornima. This day marks the birth of the great sage Veda Vyasa, who edited the four Vedas and authored the eighteen Puranas and the Mahabharata. On Guru Poornima, spiritual aspirants and devotees worship Vyasa in honor of his divine personage and disciples offer their love and gratitude to their respective spiritual Master of Guru by remembering their life and teachings. Join us as we offer Sraddha (faith) and Bhakti (devotion) at the holy feet of our beloved Guru, Amma.
